Wellshire Products Available on Amazon Prime Now

More consumers now have access to all natural, organic food for families

Swedesboro, NJ- Wellshire Farms is thrilled to announce that its line of all natural and organic meat products is now available to Amazon Prime Now customers.

“This is an exciting moment for Wellshire. We are honored to further our point of distribution to our loyal customers,” said Wellshire Founder and President, Louis B. Colameco III.

“Proximity to a brick and mortar store will no longer determine if customers have access to quality, all natural food for their families,” said Colameco.

As part of the Whole Foods Market family, Wellshire products are sold exclusively at more than 450 locations nationwide.

With the launch of Prime Now, customers in more than 30 major US cities can purchase groceries, household products, or even order from local restaurants, and have it all delivered to their homes.

As of today, dozens of Wellshire’s most popular items are available to Prime Now customers, with more expected to be added soon.

Included on the list of available products are Wellshire’s Premium Beef Franks, which were rated #1 Hot Dog by The New York Times in June of 2017.

In addition to the hot dogs, many of Wellshire’s all natural and organic bacon varieties are available, including the popular Sugar Free Dry Rubbed Bacon.

“Providing families with healthy options is exactly why we started this company in the first place. I couldn’t be happier to know that with the click of a mouse, Wellshire can be on more American tables,” said Colameco.

Wellshire is committed to going above and beyond industry standards, never cutting corners and never compromising. All products are all natural, free of antibiotics, growth hormones, preservatives, nitrates and nitrites, and other artificial ingredients. Additionally, all animals are humanely raised, fed an all vegetarian diet, and never subject to cages, crates or crowding.
